“Loving Hearts ... Open Minds ... Serving Hands”

“Place-names are the mark of realism, and those in the Bible bear witness to the concrete nature of the life of faith. God is everywhere, it is true, but he reveals himself in particular places. The history of our faith is necessarily tied to places.”
- Paul Tournier, A place for you. P 51.

WE GATHER AS GOD’S PEOPLE

Prelude: Kyung-A Lee

Introit

All: Light a candle, a symbol of Hope.
Light a candle, and warm in its glow.
Light a candle to shine in the dark.
Light a candle, open your heart.
Light a candle and open your heart.

Introduction (Reverent Jane Haapiseva)

The Lighting of the Candle of Hope by our Light Beamers

One: Our Advent wreath shows the circle of God’s unending love for us. There are four candles. And each Sunday leading up to Christmas we light a new candle. Today, we light the Candle of Hope.

All: Hope that is with us even in the waiting and the worry.

One: This candle reminds us that the smallest light can still pierce the deepest darkness.

All: Come, Emmanuel. Kindle hope in our hearts and light our way with your love.

Hymn: “Candles of Advent”

All: Light one candle warm and bright.
Light one candle of Hope;
Hope for the world to calm its fear,
Hope for the news we long to hear,
Hope in a child who will soon appear.
Light one candle of Hope.

Light Beamers’ Benediction

Light Beamers: May the Peace of Christ be with You.

All: And also with You.

Opening Prayer

One: Almighty God, creator of stars and solar systems, of universes known or unknown to us your creatures here on Earth, we stand before you with open hearts. In December’s dark nights, we witness the glory of the skies and we can believe that angels are singing blessings down upon us. By the power of your Holy Spirit, prepare our hearts to receive the hope that inspires us at Christmas.

“An Advent Prayer” (VU 26)

All: Who are we, Oh God, that you should come to us?
Yet you have visited your people and redeem us with your Son. As we prepare to celebrate his birth,

make our hearts leap for joy at the sound of your word,
and move us by your spirit to bless your wonderful works.
We ask this through him whose coming is certain,
whose day draws near, even your Son, Jesus Christ.
Amen.

Opening Hymn: “Hope Is a Star” (VU 7)

Confession of Sin

One: Most merciful Father, we acknowledge that often we forget about preparing our hearts that the Christ child can enter in; instead, we get busy and anxious about plans for holidays and for meals and for meeting with relatives. Forgive us, for we wish to be released from stress and worry. Forgive us for trying to manage things on our own, without prayer. We need to place our time and our activities in your hands. Forgive us when we forget that if the world needs to come to the stable where salvation is born, we must be God’s elves, truly sharing with the needy, witnessing hope to the hopeless, forgiving one another as we are forgiven.

“A Christmas of Confession” (VU 63)

All: God of stable, stars, and surprises,
of light and hope and new life:
open our eyes and hearts to your presence
in our world, forgive our obsession with property
and possessions,
forgive our compromises and narrowness of vision.
Open us to your grace,
that we might hear again the song of the angels,
and respond with a song in our hearts,
and in our lives. Amen.

Words of Grace

Choir Anthem: “A Little Child Will Come To Lead Us”

WE LISTEN FOR OUR GOD’S WORD

Our Scripture reader today is Sue Hicks.

Old Testament Reading: Isaiah 2:1-5

Psalms 122 (VU page 845)

I was glad when they said to me,
“Let us go into the house of the Lord.”
Our feet have been standing within your gates, O Jerusalem!

Jerusalem is built
as a city that is compact together,
where the tribes go up,
the tribes of the Lord,
to give thanks to the name of the Lord.
For thrones are set there for judgment,
the thrones of the house of David.

Pray for the peace of Jerusalem:
“May they prosper who love you.
Peace be within your walls,
Prosperity within your palaces.”
For the sake of my brethren and companions,
I will now say, “Peace be within you.”
Because of the house of the Lord our God
I will seek your good.

Gospel Reading: John 4:46-54

Sermon: “From hope to trust to faithfulness”

Offerings

Hymn: “O Lord, How Shall I Meet You” (VU 31)

Prayer of Dedication

Prayer of Intercession

One: Lord in your mercy.

All: Hear our prayer.

Hymn: “An Affirmation of Hope” (VU 656)

Closing Hymn: “O Come, O Come, Emmanuel” (VU 1)

Benediction

Postlude: Kyung-A Lee

Please join us in Trinity Hall following today’s service where you are invited for a cup of tea or coffee and fellowship time.

Your hosts today, Trinity’s Knitting Group.

Spiritual thought for your week!

“Christ’s incarnation means that God broke into human history, but also into our geography! Bethlehem of Judea, in the Middle East. We have an “in situ” faith; it happened then and there. How wonderfully important are places!

Special Advent and Christmas Services 2025

The Second Sunday in Advent- December 7, 2025

Today we are lighting our candle of Peace in our Advent wreath. Let there be peace on earth and let it begin with peace in our hearts. It is also White Gift Sunday - warm articles of clothing for our harsh winter weather and gift cards are all graciously and gratefully received.

Our Service of Comfort and Hope- Thursday December 18 at 7 pm

Christmas is often a season of sadness and loneliness for many people. Come and join us for this service of quiet reflection and memories.

The Third Sunday in Advent- December 14, 2025

Time to break out your annual Christmas sweaters and attire!

As we continue to make our way to Bethlehem, we will light our candle of joy. The closer we get to Christmas the brighter the light on our Advent wreath becomes.

We will also be remembering our loved ones who are no longer with us this Christmas as we place our special ornaments on our “Think of Me” Tree. May our good memories encourage us and fill us with hope and healing.

The Fourth Sunday in Advent or Christmas Sunday - December 21, 2025

This is a wonderful Sunday of celebration. Often, this is THE Christmas celebration for many people who will not be around for Christmas Eve services. Holy Communion will be served this morning.

Christmas Eve Services- December 24, 2025

Family Service - 5 pm

Children get home in plenty of time to hang up their stockings and read The Night Before Christmas.

Carol Sing - 6: 30 pm

Carols and Candlelight Service - 7 pm

This is a quieter, more reflective service with readings and songs as we celebrate the birth of the Christ child in our hearts. Have a Joyous and Blessed Christmas season!

Last Sunday in the year- December 28, 2025

Hymns, Taizé, and Prayer Service led by Kyung-A Lee.

A Taizé Prayer Service is a simple, meditative form of worship that consists of generous silence and repetitive sung prayers. Taizé prayer is named for the ecumenical Christian community that formed in Taizé, France during World War II.

Christmas Blessings from our house to yours!

May the love that made the stars be your guiding light.

May the love revealed in Jesus
be your hope and inspiration.

And may the love of the ever-present Spirit
give you courage, joy and hope now and forever more.

Amen. ###
