The Heart in the Heart of Huntsville Christmas Eve Family Service December 24, 2025 – 5 pm

“Loving Hearts … Open Minds … Serving Hands”

*“The Christmas story reminds us that God is present and active in us and our world.
That God-in-us is constantly calling us to hope,
peace, joy and love.”*

Instrumental Introit: “Sleigh Ride”

Greeting

One: God of the manger we come to follow the light of the world. The time has come to celebrate the birth of the Christ child.

All: God, shine your light into our hearts so Christ may be born anew in us this Holy Night.

One: Now, let us join our hearts and voices in song and celebration on this Holy Night!

A Medley of Christmas Carols

“O Come, All Ye Faithful” (VU 60 - verses 1,3,5)

“Silent Night, Holy Night” (VU 67)

“Go, Tell It on the Mountain” (VU 43)

Call to Worship

One: Welcome everyone on this holiest of nights. Welcome home! As Mary prepared herself to give birth to Jesus...

All: Let us prepare ourselves to welcome new birth and new possibilities into our own lives.

One: As a child prepares to open that special gift on Christmas morning...

All: let us prepare our hearts to receive once more the wonder of God’s amazing love that came down that first Christmas.

One: God of wonder, God of light, fill us with wonder and mystery as we experience your loving presence with us now and into the Christmas season stretching before us.

All: May the blessing of this Holy Eve touch the deepest places of our being.

Opening Hymn: “The Virgin Mary Had a Baby Boy” (VU 73)

Opening Prayer

One: God of stars and mangers, thank you for the gift of our Prince of Peace. He offered people, he offers us tonight, a new and different way of living our lives.

One that doesn’t require us to worship at the altars of secularism. Help us to once again prepare our hearts for the babe in Bethlehem. Prepare our hearts to receive “the light of the world.” And may Christ be born anew this night in our hearts and our actions of hope and love. Amen.

The Lighting of the Christ Candle

One: Tonight is one of the most anticipated nights of our entire year. It’s the night both young and old have been waiting for. Our Advent wreath will now be completed with the lighting of the Christ candle. Four candles are already lit, hope, peace, joy and love. These gifts manifest in one candle we light tonight, the Christ candle. Jesus is the light of our world, a light that breaks through our darkness and gives us hope. May this flame remind us of Spirit's loving presence tonight and in the new year ahead.

Our Christ Candle is now lit.

Candle Lighters: Rick Wearing and Sandra Parrott

All: We give thanks for Spirit's unique presence revealed in the life of Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus lived his life manifesting the hope, peace and love of God (whatever your understanding of God may be). His voice is still audible today for those whose hearts remain open and tender. Come, Jesus, be born anew in us this night, in our hearts, in our minds and in our lives. May your light shine through us into this troubled world. Amen.

Hymn: "Christ's Love" (tune of White Christmas)

All: I'm dreaming of a bright Christmas, with every Advent flame that lights. When our lives turn softly, toward the godly, and we hear angels in the night

I'm dreaming of a bright Christmas, that will remind us of the child. Newborn in a manger, no more a stranger, the One in who God's love has smiled!

I'm dreaming of a bright Christmas, and now the Christ child's flames alight. May these days be merry and bright. May we live Christ's love with all our might.

HEARING THE GOOD NEWS OF CHRISTMAS

New Testament Reading: Luke 2: 1-7

(Luke tells the story of Jesus' birth.)

Reader: Neil Thain

Hymn: "Away in A Manger" (VU 69)

(Joseph and Mary and baby Jesus walk slowly from the back of the church to the manger waiting for them at the front of the church.)

Second New Testament Reading: Luke 2: 8-16

(The Shepherds hear from the angels and go to Bethlehem where they find the newborn baby.)

Reader: Sheila Petch

Hymn: "Hark! the Herald Angels Sing" (VU 48)

(The angels appear (Anna and Isabelle Mueller) and make their way to the manger with the Holy family.)

Third New Testament Reading: John 1: 1-8

(The true light which enlightens everyone is coming into the world.)

Reader: Sue Hicks

Hymn: "A Light Is Gleaming" (VU 82)

Anthem: "Snow! A Winter Celebration" Trinity's Choir

A Brief Christmas Message: Rev. Diane Knowles

Our Christmas Offering Invitation

One: Christmas Spirit, as we hear again the Christmas story, rekindle in our souls the light of Christ. May this light inspire us to love unconditionally and to give generously. With the love of Christ in our hearts, even the smallest of offerings are transformed into mighty miracles!

Let's be miracle makers this Christmas Eve!

Our Christmas gifts will now be received.

Offering Hymn: "God of Love" (tune of Edelweiss)

One: God of love, hear our prayer,
bless this offering we bring you.
May our lives do your will, guide and guard us forever.
Give us the courage to stand for truth,
help us care for others.
God of love, hear our prayer,
bless this offering we bring you.

Our Christmas Offering Prayer

All: What a gift we have been given! The Christ child born into this world as love itself! May these gifts now bring love to those who feel rejected, friendship to those who are alone and peace to those who are struggling to cope with the overwhelm in their lives. Use these gifts and us to make this world a gentler and brighter place for all members of our grand human family. Amen.

Birthday Song and Cake Presentation

Our Light Beamer leader, Jeannette, will lead the children with their tea light candles over to the manger where the Holy family and angels will rise and leave the church with the children of the light following behind them.

One: The light of the world has come. Now it's up to you to shine Christ's light back out into our world in acts of kindness, love and generosity. That's the true work of Christmas all year long.

Closing Hymn: "Joy to the World" (VU 59)

Commissioning

One: Go in joy, go in peace, go in the light of Christ born for us this night.

Christmas Eve Blessing

One: As you go into this holy night,
may the gentle light of the Christ child
shine upon your path
and warm your homes with peace.

May the song of angels echo in your hearts and the courage of the shepherds guide your steps.

And may hope rise in you and love wrap around you like a soft blanket.

Musical Recessional: "Joy To The World!" and "We Wish You a Merry Christmas"

"Tonight, we are celebrating the birth of Jesus, but also that Divine Spark that glows within us and through us into our hurting world."

Wishing you the light of faith,
the warmth of home and the love of family
at Christmas time and always.

And may you be wrapped in the light and love of this Holy season.

Christmas Blessings!

Rev. Diane and Family
